

2017-2018 J. Wood Platt Facts & Figures

Caddie-Scholar Financials

- There are 165 Caddie-Scholars receiving benefits from the J. Wood Platt Caddie Scholarship Trust.
- $1.06 million in grants will be distributed during the school year.
- The maximum grant amount is $10,000
- The amount of an average grant is $7,863
- Fifty of our caddie-scholars have their unmet need completely covered by a Platt scholarship.
- There is still more than $1.7 million in unmet need for our caddie-scholars after taking Platt grants into account. We will cover 39% of our caddies' unmet need in 2017-18.
- Twenty-nine of our caddie-scholars have no financial need and are therefore classified as Honorary Caddie-Scholars
- The cumulative GPA of our caddie-scholars is 3.2.

Colleges & Universities

- Platt caddie-scholars currently attend 75 different colleges or universities.
- The school with the most Platt caddie-scholars is Penn State's University Park campus, with 27. There are 33 Penn State JWP scholars total, counting PSU branch campuses. Other schools boasting a large number of Platt caddie-scholars:
 - Temple University, 15
 - Drexel University & University of Pittsburgh, 8
 - St. Joseph's University & West Chester University, 6

GAP Member Clubs

- Our caddie-scholars come from 42 Golf Association of Philadelphia Member Clubs
- Philadelphia Cricket Club boasts the highest number of Platt caddie-scholars, with 16. Other clubs with large totals:
 - Aronimink, 10
 - Philadelphia CC, Saucon Valley, 9
 - Llanerch, Merion, 7
 - Chester Valley, Huntingdon Valley, Lancaster, Pine Valley, Stonewall, 6